FIFTEEN HUNDRED NATIVES DEAD. ABOUT 100 DEATHS A DAY FROM A PLAGUE

IN HONG KONG-BUSINESS AT A STANDSTILL

Hong Kong, June 12.-A plague is epidemic among the natives here. Fifteen hundred have already fied, and half the remaining number have fied the city. Many Europeans have been seized with the sourge, but thus far only one death in the European colony has been reported. The average daily number of deaths among the natives is 100. Busines is at a standstill and labor is completely paralyzed. The Government expects a total failure of the revenue from opium. It is proposed by the Government to destroy the native quarters, which are exceedingly flithy, and have long been the source of most of the diseases which have afflicted the community.

London, June 12 .- In the House of Commons to day Sir George Baden-Powell asked the Government what reply had been received from the North Gerexcessive number of steerage passengers found on board the steamer Havel on her arrival at South ampton from New-York on May 9, concerning which the company had been asked for an explanation that the company had promised not to repeat the offence. They explained that the case of overloading referred to was due to the fact that the ascents of the company in New-York were not aware of the English law governing such cases. The Board of Trade, Mr. Bryce added, did not intend to prosecute the steamship company for this violation of the law. Henry Chaplin and Thomas Waring asked the Government what further cases of pleuro-pnyumonia had been discovered in Canadian cattle. Herbert Gardner, president of the Board of Agricalture, said that there had been landed in Liverpool on June 2 by the steamer lake Superior, an animal which was found to be discased in a portion of its right lung. The lung presented the appearance of contagious pleuro-pneumonia. Mr. Gardner amounced that John S. Burdon Sanderson, M. A., professor of physiology at Oxford University, and Sir Henry James, M. hottest June day in this city in many years. The wind blew a hurricane. Houses were unroofed and the top story of a new dwelling near the baselail park was demolished. Several men who were on the hullding looking at the bail game went down with the wreck, and two of them were hadly injured. The storm came up very quickly and nearly caused a panic in the bail park. The dost was blown in great clouds and the boxes and upper story of the grand-stand were nearly staken from their foundations. With the exception of a drenching no one on the stands suffered.

Lightning struck in a number of places. An unknown man who had taken refuge under a tree was struck by a boil that split the tree in twain. The man's lower limbs are paralyzed and he is helevel to be fatally injured. In bruild Hill and Hurlem parks trees were torn up by the wind. Several excursion steamers on the bay had a hard time of it. Awnings were ripped off and the flars turn into ribbons. In the country several barns were struck by lightning. The hall also did considerable damage.

THE WESTERN FLOODS.

No attempt was made to recover them because of the high water and strong current. Following one was the carcass of a horse saddled and bridled, showing plainly they were drowned together. The water at Portland is slowly receding, and it will be two or three weeks before streets near the river are clear.

Scattle, Wash., June 12—Scattle and Western Washington have been practically without any mail from the East for two weeks. For a time the people put up with the delay, but complaints are becoming very loud at the inactivity of the postal authorities in not setting the mails through. The interference with business is very serious. Hutchinson, Kan., June 12—The Arkansas River at this point is the highest for seventy years, and is still rising. It is destroying thousands of barrels of sait in warehouses near the river, and one of the largest manufacturing sait plants is in imminent danger of collapse.

The men have all been able to work at any time at the 70-cent rate, but stood out to aid their brothers, and now are ordered to return at 60 cents. Leaders of the miners say that fully $,000 votes will be cast by the miners in this section against the ratification of the compromise.

Ironton, Ohio, June 12 -The miners of this section are not satisfied with the news from Columbus and state that they will stay out all summer rather than accept a compromise, want only the 70-cent scale.

La Salle, Ill., June 12.—The miners here delare they will not accept the price agreed upon by the Scale Committee at Columbus yesterday. The price formerly paid here was for "rough and tumble" work, and the Columbus price being for clean lump coal the miners claim the new deal is really a reduction of 10 cents a ton for min-

Pittsburg, June 12 -Fifty-seven coal operators and companies in the Pittsburg district who had pledged themselves to abide by the result of yesterday's conference of operators and miners at Columbus are preparing to resume work at the compromise rate agreed upon. Many of the operators who opposed the conference say they will not pay the 62-cent rate, and the strike will doubtless be continued at their pits. It is the general opinion among friendly operators, however, that the agreement will put an end to the importation of non-union men by the operators in the thick-vein district.

The miners of Western Pennsylvania were generally in favor of insisting upon the 79-cent rate. George Harris, the organizer, said the settlement on a basis of 69 cents for Pittsburg would prove a disappointment. He does not expect that they will refuse to work at the new rates, but that the men will regard the settlement as unsuccessful. Terre Haute, Ind., June 12.—The reports from the Indiana bituminous mining district are to the effect that the men are seriously opposed the effect that the men are seriously opposed to accepting the terms agreed upon by the delegates at the Columbus conference. While the agreement is looked upon as the beginning of the end, yet the end, in fact, is not so near as the general public may suppose. The miners are roundly denouncing the officials of the United Mine Worke's for yielding to any compromise. The operators believe that the men will go to work eventually, but that it will be two or three and perhaps four weeks before all are at work.

Streator, Ill., June 12 .- Only expressions of indignation are heard among the miners of the Streator district in regard to the terms of settiement made at Columbus. They say they went into the fight to maintain last year's wages and are now expected to accept a reduction. A convention of the miners will probably be against acceptance.

BURNING MORE BRIDGES IN ALABAMA. CLOSE OF THE STRIKE INJUNCTION CASE. Chicago, June 12.-Mr. Quarles, of Milwaukee, ended the arguments this morning before the United States Court of Appeals in the appeal of P. M. Arthur and others, labor leaders, against the strike injunction issued by Judge Jenkins and directed infunction issued by Judge Jenkins and directed toward the employes of the Northern Pacific. He briefly reviewed the case, declared that the Judge exceeded his functions in issuing the order in question and insisted upon the right of workingmen to combine for the improvement of their material and social condition. In conclusion, he asked the Court to render a decision so clear and emphatic that hereafter no Judge would attempt to enjoin members of labor organizations from a peaceable cessation of work in order to redress wrongs or grievances. This argument closed the case. It will probably be several months before a decision is reached.

POLICEMEN WHO BARTERED "PROTEC-TION" FOR MONEY.

FURTHER DETAILS ABOUT THE BUSINESS OF O TAINING PLACES ON THE FORCE-DEPUTY.

COMMISSIONER JOHN J. RYAN DIDN'T OFFER TO TESTIFY, BUT SENT A

The testimony given yesterday before the Lexow Committee was varied in its nature but in general it was cumulative. There were furdetails about the brokerage business carried on to secure places on the police force for applicants who could afford to pay $350. A barroom served as the "main office" of the concern. Of the money, all save $50 went to some one at

Police Headquarters, but no one could tell just who it was who received it. John J. Ryan, Tammany leader of the XXVth Assembly District, again came into unpleasant notoriety. After an unfortunate appliant for policeman's uniform had paid $1,400 or $1,500 to Ryan's organization to aid his candidacy, Ryan calmly told him it would cost $400 more to gain what he wanted. The man had no more money and is not yet a policeman. Ex-Judge George M. Curtis was present as counthis merning, and they were successful. Unless the sel for Ryan and asked an opportunity to crossexamine the witness, although De Lancey Nicoll and Rastus S. Ransom had already done so, The committee decided that it could not allow every man whose name might be mentioned in the testimony to have a lawyer to cross-examine witnesses. Ryan, who is Deputy Street Cleaning Comnissioner, was not in court himself yesterday and sent no request that he be allowed to take the witness stand. Mr. Goff intimated that if Ryan wanted to "vindicate" himself he ought to testify himself. But probably the miserable plight of Civil Justice Roesch, whose sorry performance before the committee is still the talk of the town, prompted Ryan to send a lawyer into the courtroom in his behalf. B. Brizzolari, who is a well-known restaurant keeper, told of paying $100 to a police sergeant for permission to sell liquors after 1 a. m. at a knew the sergeant's name, but Mr. Jerome expects to find it from the records. It is likely that there was much more blackmail of this

There was the usual testimony about giving bribes to Detective John Hock, of the Fifth-st, station. Senator Lexow justly asked what was the use of piling up the evidence against this ward man, and Mr. Goff said he thought that there was none. One witness also told of paying money to Detective Bush, colleague to Hock.

The investigation will go on to-day. For details of the Examination of Witnesses, see Page 11 THEY ROBBED THE CHURCHES.

THREE THIEVES CAPTURED IN NEWARK-A LITTLE GIRL DISCOVERS THEM AT WORK.

Three thieves who gave their names and addresses as Hugh Owens and Joseph Wade, of Brooklyn, and George Wilson, of this city, visited Newark early yesterday morning and began a raid on the Roman Catholic churches, and before they were captured had succeeded in breaking into three churches, in each of which they broke open the poor-boxes and stole the contents. All they secured for their trou-
